

SEEN AND NOTED

Is your AC clashing with your decor? Let's face it, window air-conditioning units aren't known for their aesthetic qualities. But a new line, featuring interchangeable interior panels in six designer hues, will help keep you cool without disrupting your room's color palette. The Kühl line from Friedrich Air Conditioning features a sleek design and Energy Star certification. The panels, at $49.99 each, come in Deep Red, Cobalt Blue, Designer White, Black Onyx, Classic Beige and Pink Diamond, as well as the standard Satin Silver. For more information, visit www.friedrich.com.

